Family

Respect for each other and the environment

We treat our colleagues, partners and customers with respect. We give priority to health & safety and create an honest, integer environment where we are easily approachable for everybody.

A positive and strong team

Support, recognition and appreciation of one's work lies at the base of a strong team. We go 100% for the team goals and encourage an entrepreneurial spirit.

Open and constructive communication

We want to give our people a voice with an open and direct communication style where people are allowed to speak freely. Also in our partnerships, continuous feedback and transparent communication are core values.

Expertise

Professional behaviour

We don't just talk the talk, but are committed to deliver qualitative solutions. We set up challenging targets and are dedicated to help and support our customers in a competent way and with a continued focus.

Knowledge sharing

Sharing knowledge and co-working cross-teams result in professional, high-level solutions and a strong collaboration both internally and externally.

Technical expertise

Our people are committed to continuous training and development. We follow industry trends and technologies and offer tailor-made solutions to stay ahead of competition together with our customers and partners.

Passion

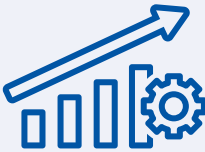

A shared passion

A passion for the job, the company and hygiene connects us. Authenticity, positivism and enthusiasm boost this passion even more. We are committed to deliver team goals and want to cooperate closely with our customers to better understand needs and preferences.

Continuous improvement

A strong solution building attitude

As a trusted partner for our customers, we want to go the extra mile. Continuous support and optimisation and challenging targets are the building blocks of our partnerships.

A challenging mindset

Being critical and open for alternative solutions brings us forward. We are actively identifying opportunities for further improvement and future growth.
